THE VICAR

Dear Friends

The month of January is named after the Roman god Janus, who is depicted as having two faces. As we look back on a difficult year dominated by the pandemic, how should we look forward to 2022 with fresh hope? The apostle Paul writes: 'But one thing I do: forgetting what is behind and straining towards what is ahead, I press on towards the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenwards in Christ Jesus.' (Philippians 3:13,14).

Firstly, to make a new start, you need to forget the things which are behind. Paul saw himself as an athlete running for Christ and purposely not looking back. He refused to allow his past sins and difficulties to define who he was. By God's grace, he no longer saw himself that way. The same can be true of ourselves, as we confess our sins and failures to receive God's forgiveness and new life.

Secondly, we need to focus on the things that lie ahead. The athlete is entirely focused on winning the race and gaining the prize. Like Paul, we have to be single-minded in making Jesus the focus of everything we do. How can we go deeper in our prayer life and Bible reading this year? What will it mean to better serve Christ in our workplace and neighbourhood, or family and children?

Paul looked forward to the day when he would stand before God, who would say 'well done, good and faithful servant'. In light of all that Jesus had done for him, Paul wanted to give his very best to Jesus. As we stand at the beginning of this New Year, let's ask ourselves, 'What can I do this year that will help me bring glory and honour to God?'

Your Friend and Vicar - David

Thank you to all who attended our joint service of nine lessons and carols for Immanuel and St Francis on Sunday 19th December at Immanuel Church at 4pm. Thank you especially to all who read lessons from both Churches.

The full service is permanently available to watch on our FennyChurches You Tube Channel along with hundreds of other videos of services from both Churches, David's study and Sixty Second Slot talks from David

WARDENS REPORT

Happy New Year to all, I hope you had a peaceful and healthy Christmas.

Once again Linda and Peter Hodkinson did a fantastic job of decorating the Christmas trees with, I suspect a little help from Oscar, thank you once again. It adds greatly to the church at this time of year to have lovely trees.

Despite the best laid plans, the Christmas services needed to be adjusted at the very last minute when Vicar David started with Covid symptoms and had to undertake a PCR test which due to the time of year took longer than usual to come back, thankfully it was negative. A big thank you goes out to Sue Roscoe who stood in at the Christingle and Crib service on Christmas Eve and David Kennedy who officiated for the Christmas Day Communion and the Scouts for providing refreshments after the Christingle service. Across the 3 services of the Christmas weekend over 130 people attended Immanuel.

In the lead up to Christmas our Toy Service on the 12th of December saw a large volume of presents received for donation to those children who would otherwise have had nothing. The 19th of December saw us join with St Francis for an excellent well attended 9 Lessons and Carols Service, thank you to Hilda for playing the organ and all the readers.

The reindeer hunt didn't have as many entrants as we hoped but congratulations to Paige Marrow who found all of them in the fastest time. Something new can take a little time to take off but we have a basis for growing a family friendly event which can also raise valuable funds, thank you goes to Sandy for organising the event and those who helped on the day.

Café Church continues to be very well attended with around 70 people each time, all who have attended have enjoyed it. There is opportunity for a brew, a croissant, conversation and a church service, given the restricted last 2 years we have had, it is great to see people being able to interact with each other socially in a church environment.

Once again Immanuel has supported charities with its annual contribution to those less fortunate than us, this year it has been focussed on local people in desperate need and supporting the 3 scouts who are attending the World Jamboree.

I am wondering if anyone actually reads my articles as in the last edition, I welcomed people to discuss finance and suggest possible advertisers for the magazine in order that we can keep the price at £1, I have had NOTHING. If the parishioners of Immanuel wish to continue to have a church, then support is needed for the small number of volunteers we do have, especially as I may well have to step away for a period of around 3 months during 2022 for personal reasons.

BISHOP JULIAN'S NEW YEAR MESSAGE 2022

I am writing this New Year Message before Christmas, which is a real risk, because I don't know what tomorrow or the end of the year will bring.

Guidance and regulations are changing almost by the hour. And to look into 2022 with any kind of certainty would be foolish. Yes, uncertainty and reluctance to plan is the name of the game.

In one sense, that has always been the case. None of us quite know what is round the corner. Accident or illness often bang on the door unexpectedly, but the feeling of uncertainty had been heightened by the current pandemic; with work, health, family meetings and travel arrangements liable to sudden change.

But this has also made us appreciate those people and things which give certainty. It is remarkable that Her Majesty the Queen has reigned for so long; kept so well; given continuity and stability, even in her own personal bereavement this past year and has offered a clear Christian lead to the nation. Long may she reign! But that is not in our hands or hers.

The established church, freedom of speech and belief, our justice system, our NHS healthcare and welfare provision, our schools and academies, are all part of the backbone of our culture that give that measure of security in uncertain times.

However, I fear we have wandered from some of those anchors for a stable society, by not resourcing them, or giving them the priority they deserve. Those we most depend upon for our wellbeing are often the most poorly paid and supported. Yes, the structures are there, but the environment to attract people to take on those crucial roles is often off-putting.

So, out of the tragedy of the pandemic, I believe there is an opportunity to reset the compass. What are we to learn and so do differently in 2022?

It's an opportunity to reset our economy, so that it and jobs and livelihoods are based on essentials rather than luxuries and non-essentials. We have become over reliant on industries and trade that provide pleasure and fun, rather than the basic ingredients of life.

And the economy also has to be reset, so that it is not resting on unsustainable and increasing debt, leaving future generations to pick up the tab.

We have begun to reset the value we give to those who work as NHS staff, care home workers, teachers, drivers, retailers, and manufacturers, all without whom many of the basic ingredients of daily life come crashing to a halt. But more needs to be done to increase the culture change.

It's also an opportunity to reset the compass on to truth telling, in our political life, in our media. The trend to talk of 'my truth' and to use deliberate diversion tactics to turn attention away from the truth never play out well.

It's an opportunity to reset the basis for our moral and ethical decisions, in the controversial areas of life and death and human flourishing, on how we reach a view and on what authority that view is founded.

The start of a New Year traditionally is accompanied by resolutions to be and do better in the year ahead.

The uncertainty engendered by the pandemic calls us to reset the compass on how we live our lives. To focus on what really matters, knowing none of us are here forever and by so doing, finding the One who has made this extraordinary world and to whom we are all accountable one day.

He is the one real certainty: Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday, today and forever.

And that's why Christians make such a fuss about Him, as the One who brings life in all its fullness.

Let me finish with some of the verses of a well-known traditional hymn, as they put it far better than I ever could ...

Through all the changing scenes of life
In trouble and in joy
The praises of my God shall still
My heart and tongue employ

O make but trial of His love
Experience will decide
How blest are they and only they
Who in His truth confide.

Fear Him ye saints and you will then
Have nothing else to fear,
Make you His service your delight,
Your wants shall be His care.

To Father Son and Holy Spirit,
The God whom we adore
Be glory as it was, is now
And shall be evermore.

I send my best wishes for a 2022 in which our resets deliver a better way.

Bishop Julian

MY HEROES

In the last magazine - Advent 21 - Oscar our grandson wrote a short paragraph on his Hero. This was based on a school lesson where they had to write about their hero as some person they knew. This prompted me to think about my heroes, people who had an influence on my life. When I look back, I can see that these people have influenced my life and helped steer me away from being a drop out. They inspired me to get up and do something with my life that might help others. So here goes, in chronological order, my four heroes.

Hero Number 1, Joseph Whitworth. Fight and work hard for what you believe in.

Joseph Whitworth, a man whose name will be very familiar to the older readers with an engineering background. Every mechanical device we own from computer hard drive to vacuum cleaner to aeroplane will have some a connection to the legacy Joseph Whitworth left. He was passionate about standards and measurement. He standardised screw threads and regardless of what country you come from, screws and bolts are to Whitworth methodology. However, Joseph Whitworth was an ardent pacifist and believed that peace was worth defending. His early years from 1803 to 1815 were coloured by the Napoleonic Wars and the atrocious death toll. This led him to believe that a better equipped military could reduce such killing by ending conflicts quickly and thus restore peace. Sadly, his solution was the Whitworth Rifle with its rifled barrel that could shoot further and more accurately than the enemy and thus bring the conflict to an end quickly. Today we remember the 'Cold War' and the stand-off which has it roots in Joseph Whitworth's pacifist ideals that we have to protect peace. Perhaps the debate of right or wrong could go on forever but his legacy has meant our children could grow up in relative peace.

Hero Number 2, Frank Hornby. Follow your ideas and dreams and don't let time slip through your fingers.

Frank Hornby rose from being a clerk to politician for the people of Everton, Liverpool. It is said that Frank Hornby was saddened to see his children wasting time one rainy Sunday afternoon (been there). He decided to go into the shed and drilled holes in strips of metal and along with some nuts and bolts (standardised by Mr Whitworth) gave them to his children to make something. The wet afternoon passed without event as his children bent and screwed bits together in pursuance of their imagination. Frank Hornby had one of those rare moment and realised that children need to let out their imagination and inventiveness. From this spark Meccano, Hornby Trains and Dinky toys were born. Meccano has probably been responsible for more invention and creation than any other toy and that includes Lego. The Alex Issigonis Mini engine and gearbox idea was evolved, using Meccano. Differential calculators for bomb aiming - sadly another idea to restore peace - and numerous time-keeping devices including the world's most accurate electro-mechanical clock.

A New Year's Resolution from Micah

Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of olive oil? Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression...? He has shown you, O mortal, what is good, and what does the Lord require of you: To act justly and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God. (Micah 6:7-8)

I quite like olive oil; not the Popeye character but the cooking ingredient. Although I am not sure what I would do with even one river of oil, and I have nowhere to put a ram.

Still, this is one of my favourite Bible passages, and it is an ideal one for lawyers. It sums up in a very simple but helpful way what true religion should be. That makes it a good verse to start the year. The message is simple: God does not want empty promises or lip service, but our real devotion, from our heart.

What does it mean for us?

Do justly - Be honest and open in our dealings with others this year. Be dependable. We should say when things are going wrong and be appreciative when they go well. Be fair in our dealings, whether at home or at work or in church. Keep confidences and never pass on gossip.

Love mercy - Give people the benefit of doubt, do not take advantage of others and do not always criticise or complain. Accept apologies and explanations where we can, and be generous.

Walk humbly - Quietly get on with things. Do not make a big show of what we do.

Lastly, we are required to do these things. They are not options or choices but requirements. Like many requirements in the Bible, they are simple to understand, but not always simple to do. Happy New Year.

A New Year Prayer 2022

Lord of all creation,
Lord of all the years,
Thank you for steering us through the fragmented landscape of two pandemic-riddled years.
Here we stand at the beginning of a new year, not knowing what lies ahead. Our only security lies in you, Lord.
Please take our hands and guide us, day by day, into January and beyond. We will not be afraid, Lord because you have promised never to leave us, never to forsake us.
And you keep your promises. We are safe.
2022, here we come... expectantly,
In Jesus' name,
Amen

By Daphne Kitching

The Name Jesus

Have you ever wondered where the name 'Jesus' comes from?

The name Jesus is a transliteration of a name that occurs in several languages. It is of Hebrew origin, 'Yehosua', or Joshua. There is also the Hebrew-Aramaic form, 'Yesua'.
In Greek, it became 'Ἰησοῦς' (Iésou̓s), and in Latin
it became 'Iesus'.

The meaning of the name is 'Yahweh delivers' or 'Yahweh rescues', or 'Yahweh is salvation'. No wonder the angel Gabriel in Luke (1:26-33) told Mary to name her baby Jesus:
"because He will save His people from their sins."

Two Easy Ways to Help and Support your Church

1) Buy a Church Magazine which is published bi-monthly - the magazine contains details of all services and events taking place in our church plus our vicar's letter to the parish and many interesting articles. If you wish you can contribute to the magazine by either e-mailing your article to the vicar or giving a paper copy to the warden on duty who will ensure that it is given to the editor.

2) The 100 Club - the monthly draw with a prize of £50. For £12 per year there is a monthly prize of £50 for one lucky number. This should be an easy way of providing revenue for the church. 100 numbers at £12.00 per year, £600 given back in prize money and £600 for church funds. We are coming up to the year end so please think about taking part in this draw.
